woman what art thou why dost thou twine so firmly round the heart of man away to fly tho he cannot find but ever bows to thy command as thou an angel sent from heaven for good or evil wast thou given at home in peace abroad in dou sorrow when on the land or ruffled sea his joys from thee he still must borrow without thee what a wretch were he when wandering far from pole to pol thou art his hope his life his soul and yet thou seem-st that those away cannot thee love as others do that one who from thy charms would stray possesses not a heart that's true but oh his heart is ever thine he roams the world thy smile to find the wandering heart when on the sea as far he roves away away will ever turn we and worship Thee from Thee it will not Cannot Stray Thou art forever his guiding Star his Soul is Thine Though he Bafar Belive it not who can dwell forever in Lady's bower knows no Thy bosom ardent swell as hope dwells on the happy hour when he again shall tread the Strand where woman waves her magic wand &c woman what art thou why dost thou weep and whom seekest thou she said unto them they have taken away my lord and I know not where they have laid him and when she had thus said she turned herself back and saw Jesus standing there and knew not that it was Jesus Jesus saith unto her woman why weepest thou whom seekest thou she supposing him to be the gardener saith unto him sir if thou have borne him hence tell me where thou hast laid him and I will take him away Jesus saith unto her Mary she turned herself and saith unto him Rabboni which is to say Master Jesus saith unto her touch me not for I am not yet ascended to my father but go to my brethren and say unto them I ascend unto my father and your father and to my God and your God Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord and that he had spoken these things unto her

And when it was evening on the same day

When in life's summer's one loving heart is near to me than aught that fortune can Bestow the treasures from the distant Sea that with such radiant lustre glow the glory of Monarch's throne not half the pleasure can impart of all Earth's treasures I would own one loving heart the victor's Crown the poet's wreath the baubles that the World may fling a momentary fragrance breathe a momentary triumph bring But long as life remains shal love new fragrance and new joy Impart even when the daisies Bloom above
how sweet the Spell it throws around our home though humble they may Be and where one loving heart is found that is always paradise to me o fate may hope thou may'st Bereave and bid my cherished dreams depart Rape all things else I prize but leave one loving heart | on Board of the Verses shoa which way the wind blows to Mary

I have a passion for the name of Mary Thou aspi'st Me from the muses Shrine a leaf to pluck and cast on thine accept the simple wreath I twine Brief is the time since we have Met our partings scarce shall we be regret our meetings scarcely joy as yet three Shot and fleeting Months ago I never had looped thy Brow or marked thy Chestnut ringlets flow or pressed thy hand or pissed thy Cheek or named thy name so softly Sweet or dreamed that we should ever Meet But there's a Charm in thy Sweet name a Spell of love a Sound of fame that Binds me with its magic Chain and thou I know art good and true I see read it in thine eyes of Blue when the pure Soul looked Sweetly through But may life glide Sweetly on resplendent as a cloud of morn reflecting all the hues of dawn a comical Mistake

a man in San Juan California arose a few mornings ago while the festive lark was still snoring and with a tin Bucket under his arm went to the Barn to Milk the family cow it was dark and rainy and in fumpling about for old Brindle he got into the wrong pen and began to pail the off Mule of his wagon team he cant remember now which side of the roof he went out at But his recollection of alighting on the picket fence is very vivid he expects the Bucket down in a few days
